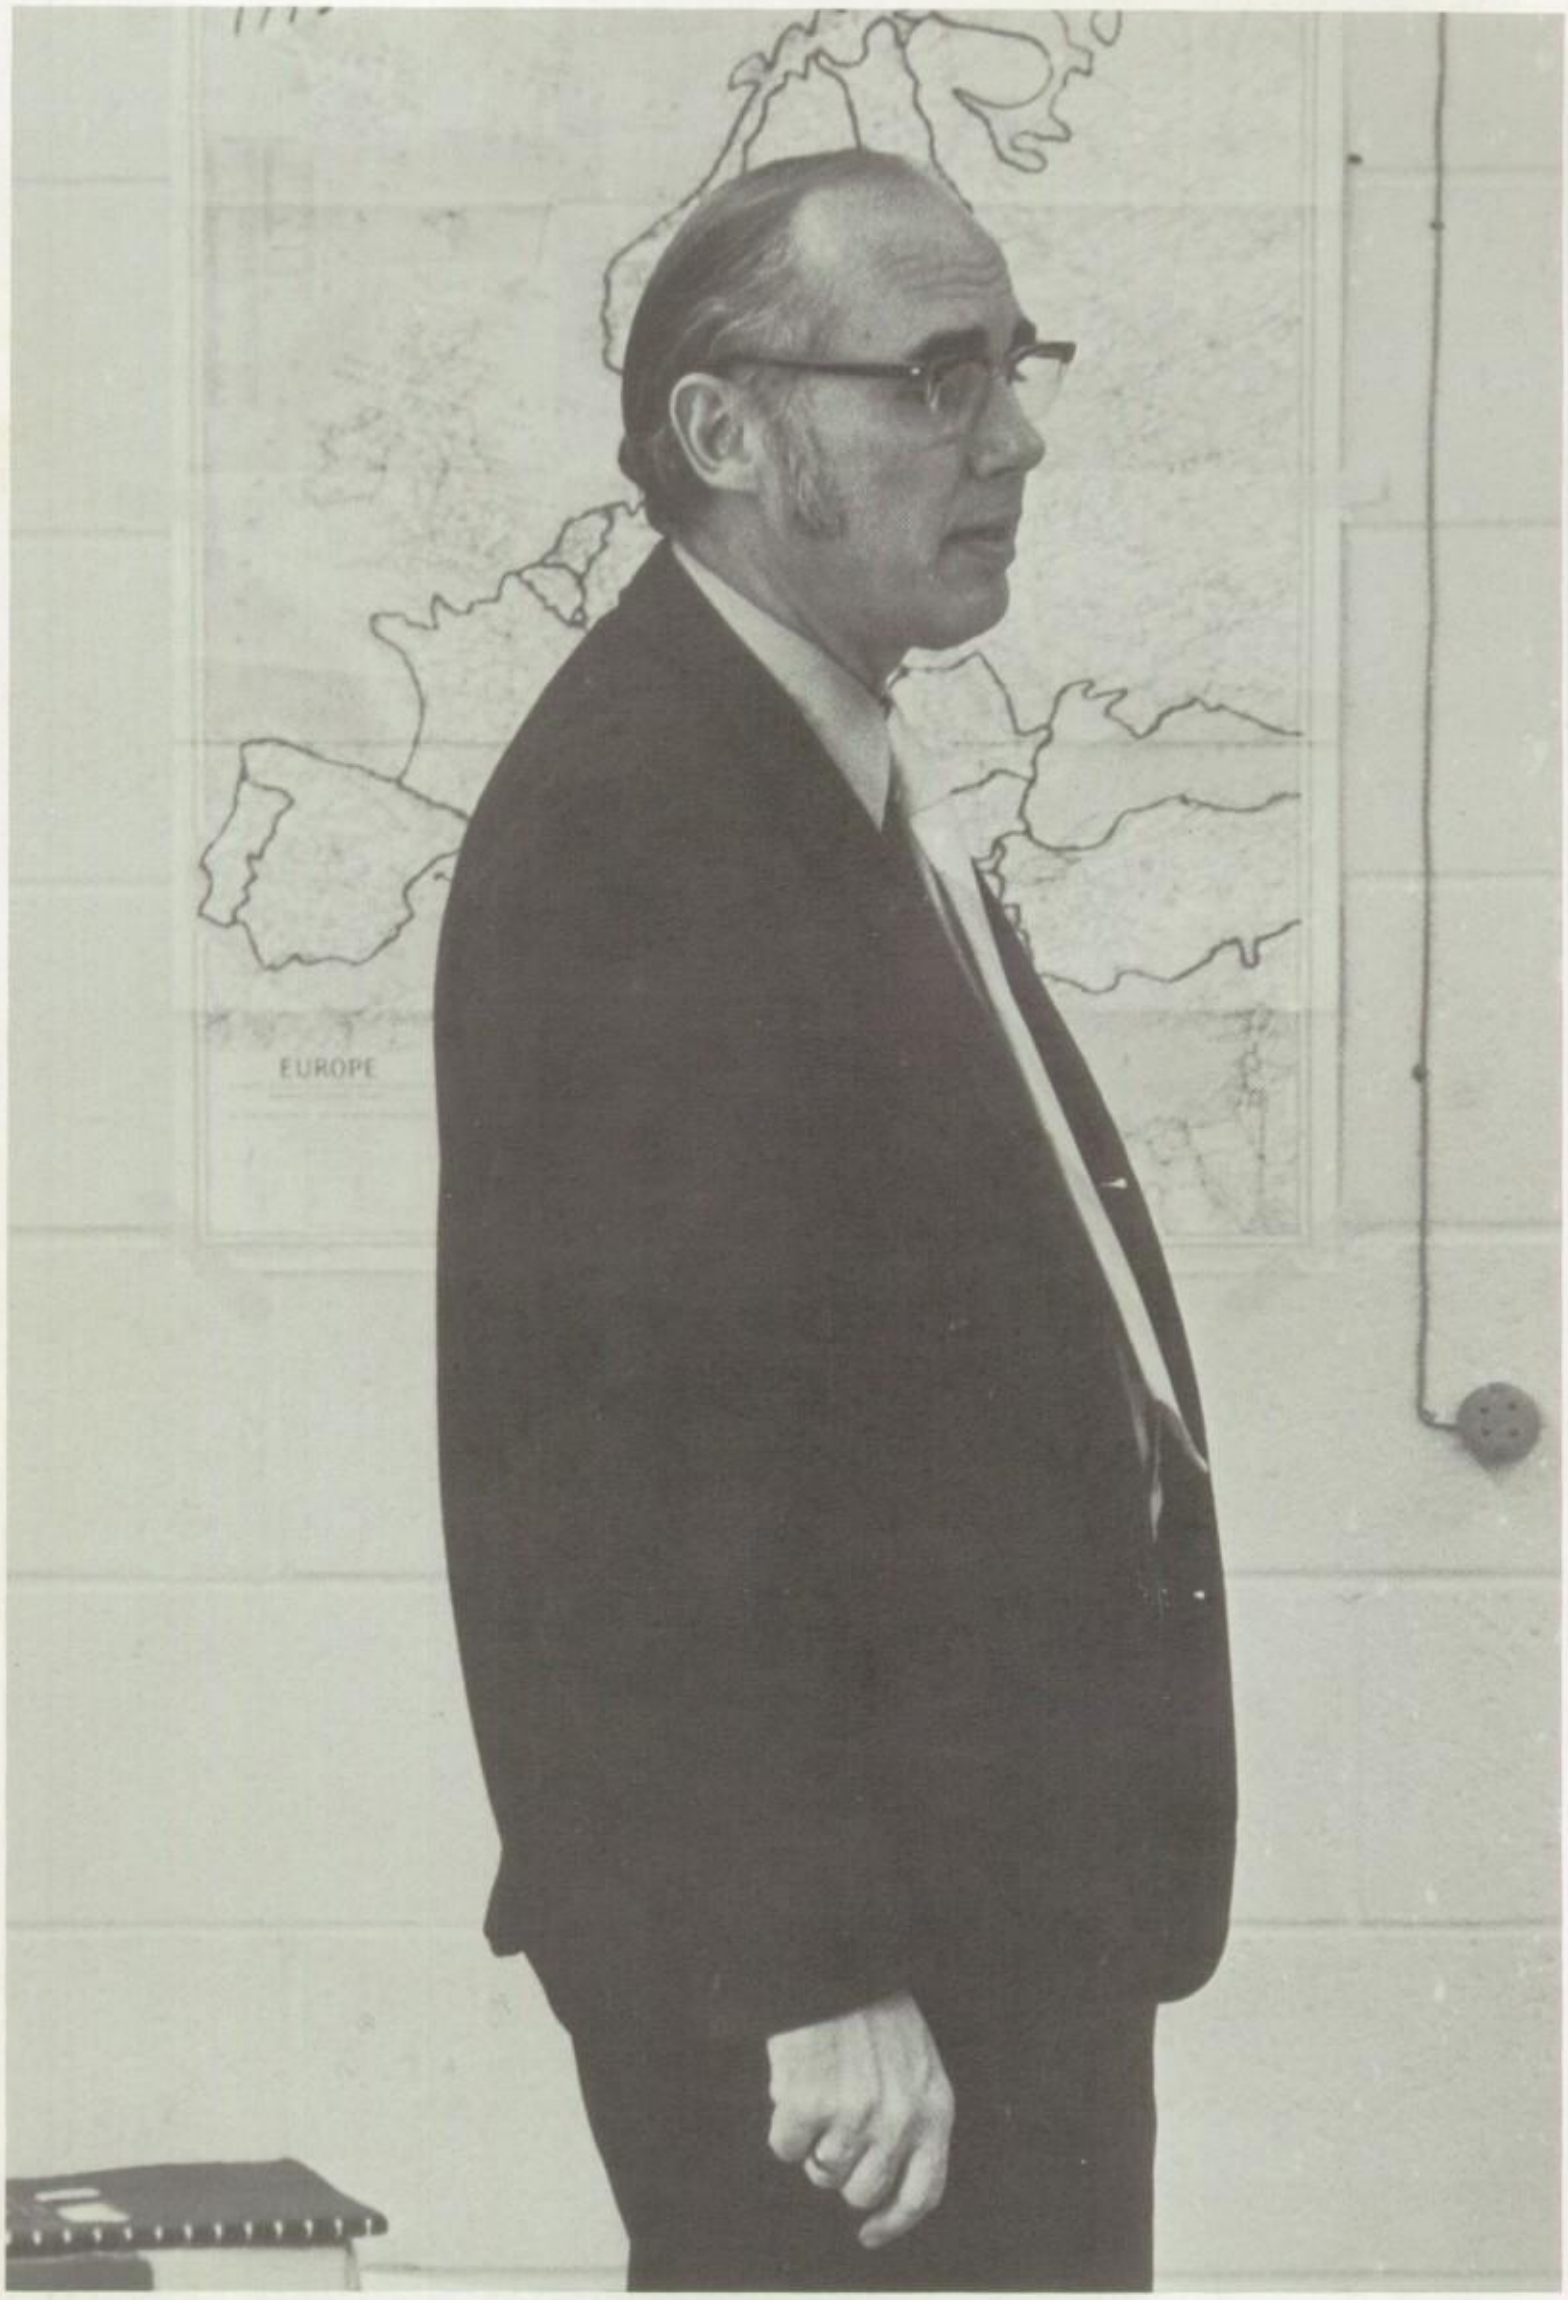
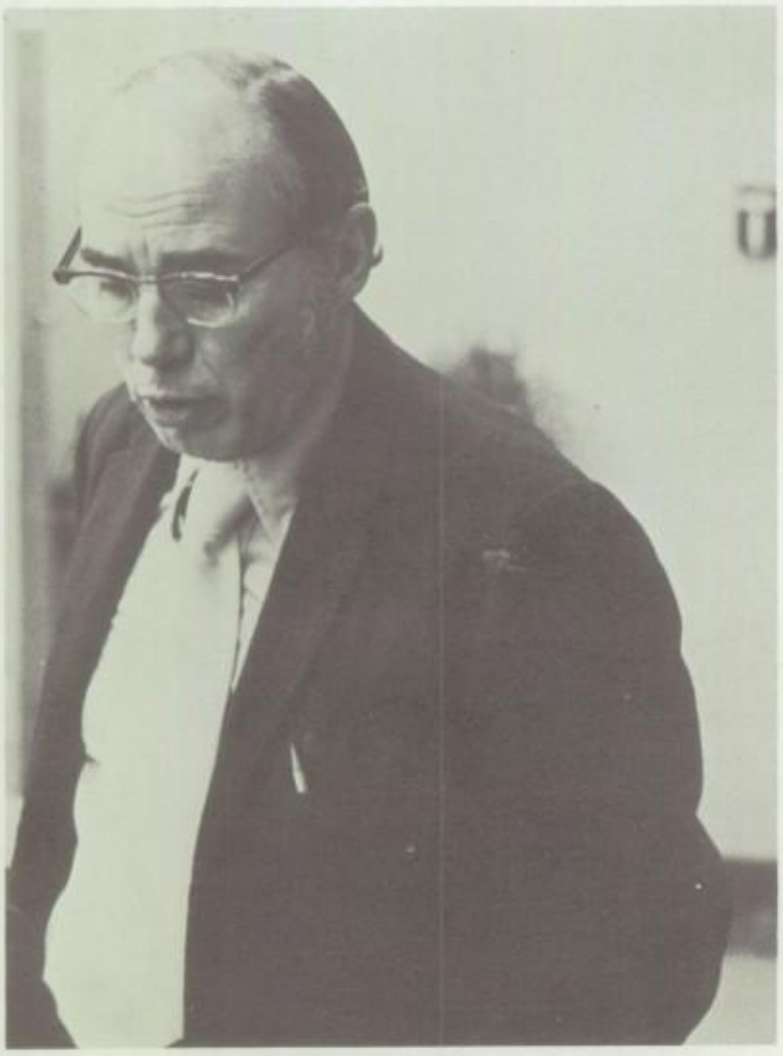
DEDICATION



MR. KENNETH McCOWAN

I'd rather have Jesus than silver or gold,
I'd rather be His than have riches untold;
I'd rather have Jesus than houses or lands,
I'd rather be led by His nail-pierced hand.

I'd rather have Jesus than men's applause,
I'd rather be faithful to His dear cause;
I'd rather have Jesus than world wide fame,
I'd rather be true to His holy name—



To be a teacher and a friend at the same time is difficult. It would seem that the respect needed for a teacher would be a barrier to any forms of friendship. Today we can say that this situation does not always hold true, for we have found that Mr. McCowan is unique to our class because he is concerned for us. To some of us he was a father, to others an example of living Christianity.

—Than to be a king of a vast domain
And be held in sin's dread sway;
I'd rather have Jesus than anything
This world affords today . . .

Eph. 2: 8-10
Kenneth McCowan.

How long ago those days seem—those whirlpools of uncertainty and mixed emotions. But many of those uncertainties soon dissolved when shyness was forgotten and loneliness was swept away. Mellowed senses awakened to each other unfolding the hidden beauties within us. And our lives intertwined and brought us to a place where we could pause . . . and talk . . . and share our dreams . . .

we have shared . . .

tears of sadness . . .

So long as we love,
we serve; so long
as we are loved by others,
I should say that we are almost indispensable; and
no man is useless while he has a friend.

Thy will, O God, is joy to me,
  A gladsome thing;
For in it naught but love I see.
  Whate'er it bring
In that resplendent will of Thine,
  I calmly rest;
Triumphantly I make it mine,
  And count it best.

Although the soccer team concluded the season with a final record of 5-11, they displayed a high degree of sportsmanship and a great amount of enthusiasm for their game. Co-captain Rick Sweitzer kept the offensive line moving while co-captain David Baker Taylor anchored the defense with his superb goal tending.

This year Coach Rob Wells received the help of Mr. Ed Arruda, who, while acting primarily as an offensive coach, left Coach Wells more time to work with the defense.

Although a bit inexperienced, this year's varsity squad broke even for the season with a final record of 12-12. Inexperience was overcome by hard work and pure skill in many a game, such as the 82-81 victory over St. Joe's.

The team was lead offensively by Co-captains David Rouse and Rick Sweitzer. High scorer Dave McGinley also added greatly to the team's offensive punch. The defense was controlled primarily by the superb efforts of David Baker Taylor and leading rebounder David Bruce Taylor.

FIELD HOCKEY

The girl's field hockey team had a short season this year consisting of two games. In spite of this they displayed enthusiasm and team spirit. Even though they suffered defeats in both games, in the second game they evidenced fine potential which could have been developed into a unified team. The returning members feel that next year's team has a promising future.

Coach, Mrs. Hayes

This year was a new beginning for the girls' basketball team. In fact, the only returning varsity starter was Denise Horwood, but the results of a few practises brought forth an enthusiastic group. After losing the first two games, the team worked hard at playing "as a whole team." The results of this was not just that the team lost only three games out of the last seven, but that the losses were by small margins. Next year with three returning starters, the team looks promising.

The JV squad finished the season with a final record of 8-8. The starting five were high scorer, Gordy Vossler, leading rebounder, Alan Ferguson, Glenn Busfield, Mark Roberts, and Jeff Sweitzer. A combination of teamwork and hustle proved enough to defeat many of the toughest teams. Again Mr. Wells did a commendable job of coaching.

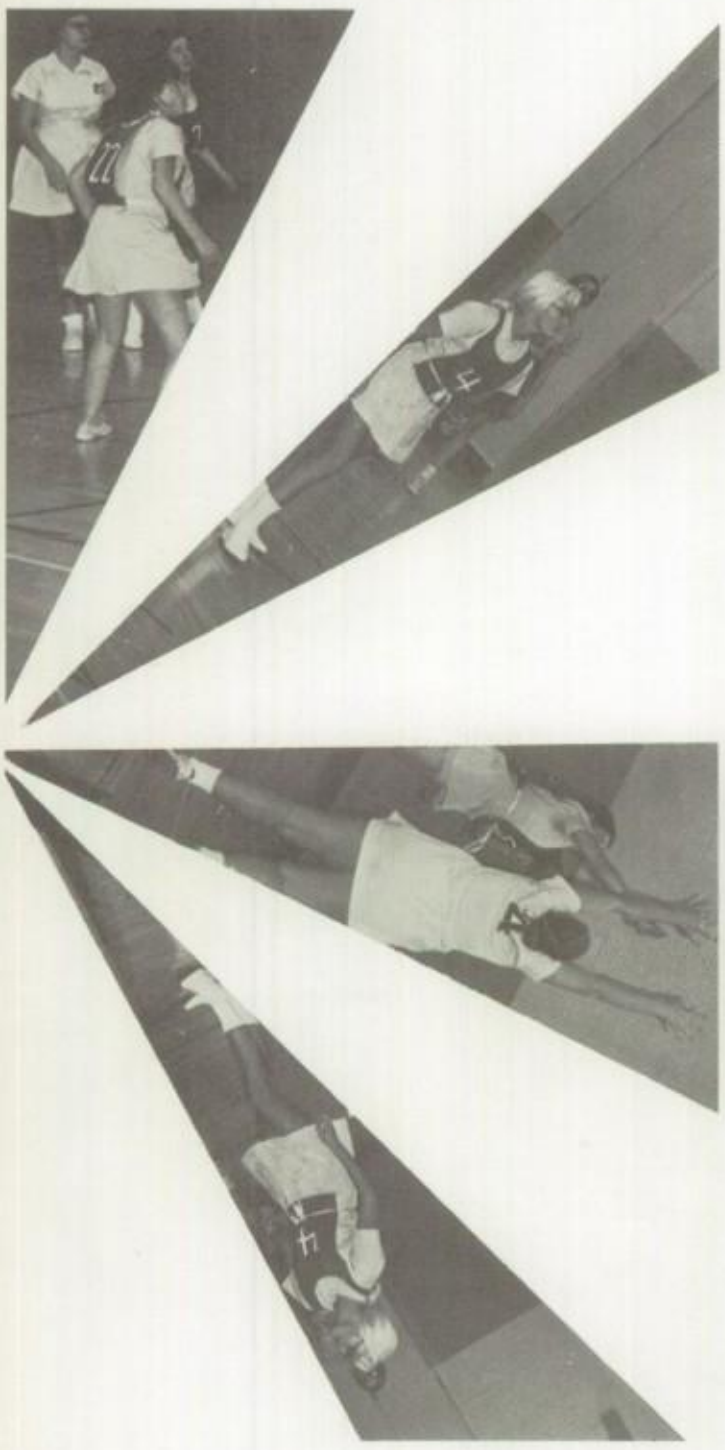
GIRLS JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL

Row 1: Sharon Lima, Debbie Ellard, Kris Etter. Row 2: Manager Sue McKay, Marcia Abbott, Laura Nordley, Betty-Lou Proudman, Lauren Fredrikson, Annette Small



In spite of the fact that most of the JV players had not played basketball before, they had a good year with a record of 5-4. Marcia Abbott and Kris Etter (Co-captains), Debbie Ellard and Betty Proudman showed us some good shooting. We also saw incredible hustling on the part of the whole team. This quality was what probably bought about their 5 victories and made them a good team.

Despite an overall record of 1-7, this year's Junior High squad proved, in their great victory over Belmont Hill (last game of season), that when they did "get it together," they could not be stopped. A good effort was consistently rendered by the starting line-up which included Garth Johnson, Mark Roberts, Steve Stantial, Bruce Margosian, and David McCowan.

Mr. Steele was this year assisted in his coaching duties by senior, David McGinley.

To the Class of '73 we leave our book of rules.

To the Class of '74 we leave a full supply of detention slips.

To the Class of '75 we leave our intelligence.

To the Class of '76 we leave our spirituality.

To the Class of '77 we leave wondering if you'll make it.

We leave Mr. Strodel knowing that there will always be gum on the desks.

We leave Mr. Martin all next year's schedule conflicts.

We leave the secretaries so that they can relax.

We leave Mr. Dutton a Corvette.

We leave Mr. Good tapping your shoulder.

We leave the female faculty Judo lessons to use to control their classes.

We leave the male faculty matching sweaters to wear on Fridays.

We leave our lockers with the combinations on the top right hand corners.

We leave the door open in the reference room.

We leave the school looking for a class that could compare to ours.

As the world around us begins to fade from view, we wander into a new wilderness. Once again, standing alone, the old mysteries return. But we are not afraid . . . for now there is a new world above us . . . one more for us to share. But in our hope for what lies ahead, we share a common desire to meet again . . .

we will share . . .

a search for meaning . . .

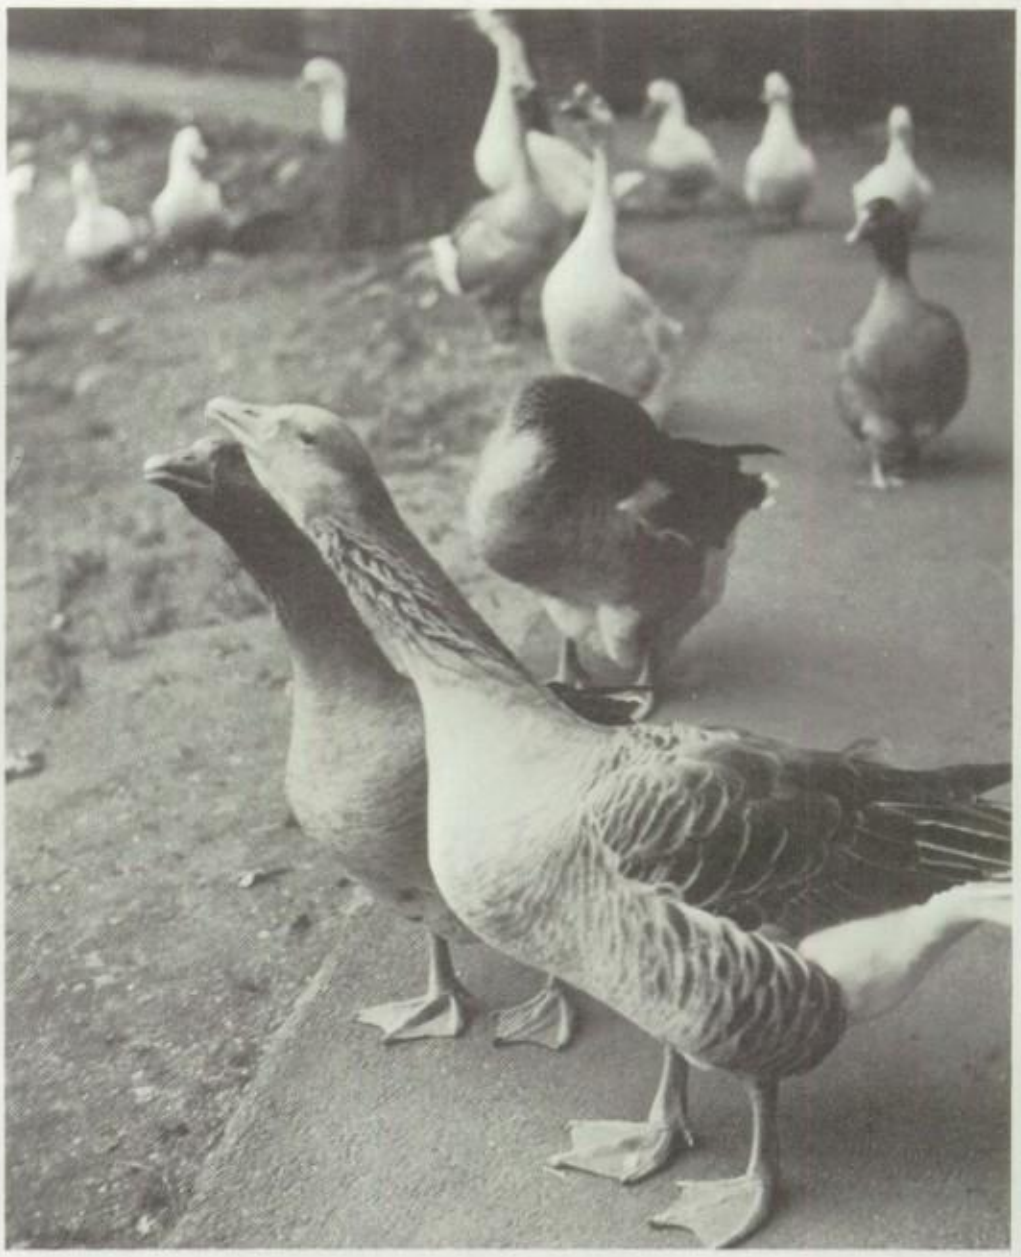
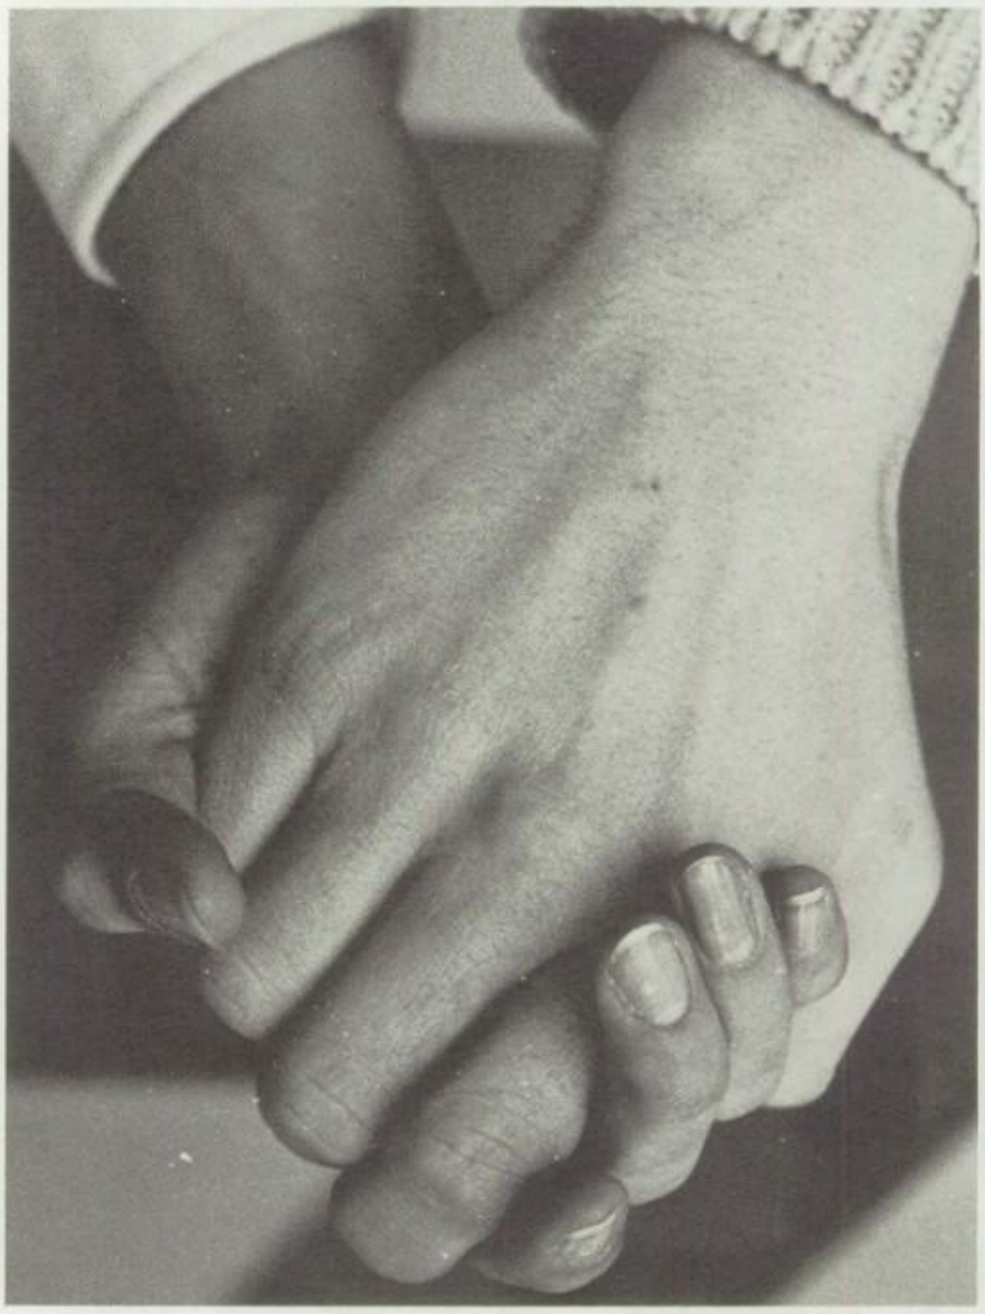
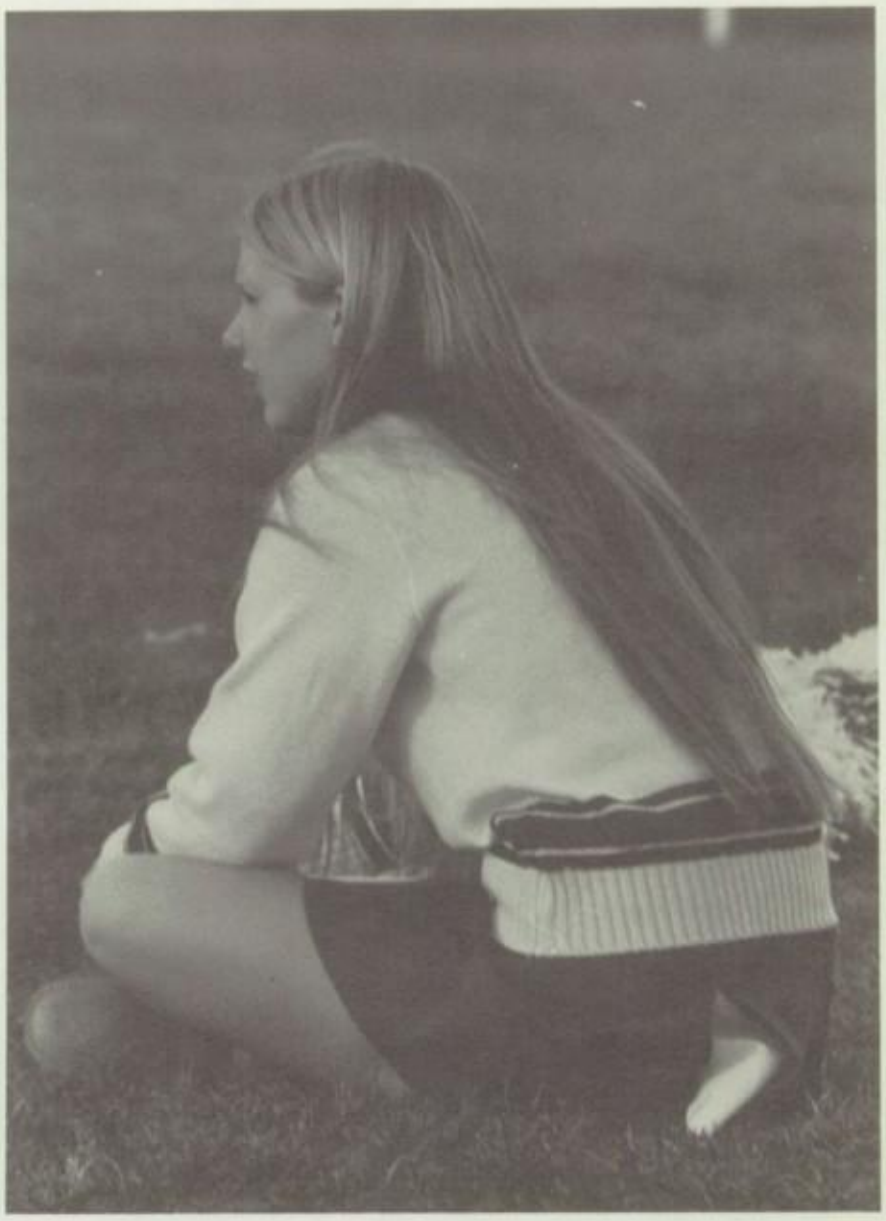
individuality . . .



joy of beauty . . .





moments of silence . . .

MORE RESPONSIBILITY, AND • WITH GOD'S HELP • A BETTER WORLD.

OUR ADMONITION TO
THE GRADUATING SENIORS

Take no part in the unfruitful works of darkness, but instead expose them. For it is a shame even to speak of the things they do in secret; but when anything is exposed by the light it becomes visible,...

Ephesians 5: 11-13

THE JOHN BIRCH SOCIETY

BELMONT, MASSACHUSETTS 02178

MORE RESPONSIBILITY, AND • WITH GOD'S HELP • A BETTER WORLD.

LESS GOVERNMENT, MORE RESPONSIBILITY, AND • WITH GOD'S HELP • A BETTER WORLD. LESS GOVERNMENT,

In sharing yourself remember that . . .
The ultimate measure of a man
is not where he stands
in moments of comfort and convenience,
but where he stands
at times of challenge and controversy.
The true neighbor will risk
his position, his prestige,
and even his life
for the welfare of others.
In dangerous valleys
and hazardous pathways,
he will lift some bruised
and beaten brother
to a higher and more noble life.
